

COURSE THEMES
2021/22 ACADEMIC YEAR SEMESTER I

Course name: History of Jewish-Christian relations	Course code: T212	Credit: 3
Prerequisites: -
Course instructor. Dr. Iványi Gábor Instructor contact details: ivanyigabor@yahoo.com
Course location and time: zoom/google-meets/ vagy személyes jelenlét
Type of lesson: lecture
Course description, topic (topic per lesson, with the required reading/study for that lesson [if available] or textbook chapter): <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. the Jewish-Christian relationship in the early, developed and late Middle Ages 2. the Inquisition; Protestantism and Judaism, (the Reformers and Luther, Protestant orthodoxy, liberalism and the Enlightenment, the legacy of Pietism); 3. neo-Protestant church movements and Judaism and anti-Semitism; 4. enlightenment, revolutions, philosophy and (anti)Judaism; 5. emancipation, capitalism, nationalisms, anti-Semitism and Christianity; 6. the Jewish-Christian relationship in the world of fascism-Nazism and communism, and in its more recent religious, theological and political dimensions;
Method of marking: Colloquium
Compulsory literature for the course (all compulsory works, with full bibliography): ENDREFFY, ZOLTÁN: From anti-Judaism to anti-Semitism. In The Holocaust in Hungary in European Perspective (Ed. Judit Molnár) Budapest: Balassi Kiadó. 2005. 205-215. MOLTMANN, JÜRGEN, 1996: "Alliance or Leviathan. Towards a Political Theology of the New Age". Translation. László Ablonczy, Sándor Szathmáry. In Theological Review Vol. 39 (1996) No. 6, pp. 352-359. NIRENBERG, DAVID: Anti-Judaism. The Western tradition. Kalligram. 2016.
Recommended reading for the course: BENBASSA, ESTHER - ATTIAS, JEAN-CHRISTOPHE, 2004. A dialogue on Jewish identities. Budapest.
Other comment: Conditions for attending the course: absence max. 2 hours; tardiness from the course max. 15 minutes; please notify in advance in all cases!		