

CALL FOR PROPOSALS STUDENT MOBILITY FOR PLACEMENTS ¹²

Erasmus+ is the European Commission's most successful program supporting education, training, and youth. John Wesley Theological College is committed to Erasmus+, and it is an important goal of Wesley College to encourage more Wesleyan students to participate in the program.

The College is therefore launching an institution-wide call for applications to participate in the Erasmus+ student mobility program for the academic year 2023/2024.

The aim of the internship application is:

A professional internship is a period spent at a company or organization located in another program or partner country. Its aim is to help you acquire the skills needed in the community labor market and to understand the economic and social culture of the host country.

A host company can be a private or public institution:

- in the labor market,
- in education, training or youth.

They cannot be:

- National Offices,
- European Union organizations.

Mobility can only be realized if the foreign professional internship is accepted by the sending institution (Wesley) and it is included in the student's progress at home - on the Wesley credit numbers and with a converted grade or indicated in the diploma supplement.

The countries participating

- pay no tuition fees at the host institution;
- receive an Erasmus+ grant for the period spent abroad
- complete the traineeship by preparing a report

Eligibility criteria

³ During the coronavirus epidemic, it is possible to have full physical or blended (partly physical, partly virtual) mobility. Fully physical mobility is when the student spends the entire mobility period in the host country and fulfils his/her mobility obligations from there (either through face-to-face teaching/working or online teaching/working). Blended mobility is when the student spends part of the mobility period abroad (physical part) and part of the mobility at home (virtual part). (The full length of a mobility for placement is 2 months and the full length of a mobility for learning is 3 months.) However, a scholarship is only awarded for the physical period spent abroad!

Those students can apply

- who are students at Wesley at the time of application;
- who are Hungarian citizens, hold a registration certificate or a valid permanent residence permit;
- For BA or MSc students: who have at least one semester completed at the time of application (special faculty rules may vary);
- who have adequate knowledge of the language of the working environment;
- and who meet the application requirements of the relevant department.
- who has a study average of 3,5 or above (from the last two semesters)⁴

Duration and amount of the scholarship:

You can apply for a student internship for a period of 2-12 months.

Documents to submit

1. Europass CV (in English)
2. a cover letter, in which please make sure you address the following points (in English):
 - What is the professional relevance of the programme for the applicant?
 - Why is it worthwhile to complete the programme in the country and institution of your choice, and what advantages does it offer compared to its national counterpart?
 - What are the professional and career implications and impacts of the programme for the applicant?
 - Include in your cover letter if you are involved in any community activities at Wesley College (e.g., Student Council activities)
3. study plan/workplan (in English and in the language of the study/internship abroad program):
 - Describe in a separate document what studies / courses you intend to pursue (check the course offerings on the college website beforehand)
4. previous semesters' exam results printed from the Office of studies at the College
5. if you are not a Hungarian citizen, a copy of a valid settlement or residence permit or a document proving your refugee status

Deadline and method of application:

⁴ For first-year students, only the previous semester's grade point average needs to be taken into account.

Application forms and attachments must be sent to the e-mail address managed by the Erasmus+ coordinator at the College: erasmusmobility@wjlf.hu

Deadline: submission is possible on a continuous basis

Evaluation of the applications submitted:

Applications will be evaluated by the Study Committee.

The Study Committee will interview applicants, test their language skills, score and rank them before making a decision. The interview will be held online, the expected date is the second week of February and applicants will be notified by e-mail of the exact date.

The general criteria for the evaluation of applications are to be found below. (They are also set down in the scoring system established by the Erasmus Commission):

- language skills,
- academic achievement,
- professional knowledge and activity,
- or other social activity.

The departmental and Erasmus+ coordinators are available to answer technical questions on the preparation of applications.

Budapest, 1 February 2023.

We wish you a successful application!
